CAYLEY TO HAVE NEW ROAD WEST

Word was received last week from the Department of Public Works at Edmonton that work would begin on the proposed new road, that is to run west from Cayley, inside of the next thirty days. This is certainly good news for Cayley, for when this road is completed it will enable a large number of farmers who are living in the country west of the town to haul their grain and other products to Cayley, which they have been forced to take to High River in the past, on account of the steep grades through Squaw Coulee. The fact that the farmers in this neighborhood have raised $600 to buy the right of way for this road, shows their keen interest, for of all towns along the line to do business in, Cayley is the most popular.

Wheat Over the $1 Mark

Reports from all over the continent of America indicate that wheat will be king this year. The price of wheat in the big grain exchanges has kept steadily advancing for the past couple of weeks, and has now reached the highest price that it has touched for several years.

On Monday of last week wheat was quoted at the Winnipeg market at $1.08 per bushel; on Saturday it was $1.16, a rise of over one cent per day. On the previous Friday it was $1.04. The end of the rise in price is not yet, and at the same rate by next week wheat will be worth at least $1.25.

This means more than dollar wheat at Alberta points. While the crop in Alberta this year is short, there is a considerable percentage of last year's crop in the farmers' granaries, and this is a case where it has paid the farmers to hold their grain. Last year at this date wheat was quoted on the Winnipeg market at 81 cents. Oats show a corresponding increase in price, being now quoted at 41, as compared with 31 cents last year.

That the speculators in wheat, however, do not anticipate such a great shortage is evidenced by the fact that October and December deliveries are quoted at eight cents lower than that for July.

Flour has advanced in the local markets 20 cents per hundred-weight, although it was manufactured from the cheap wheat of last year. The price of flour does not appear to be based at all on the price at which the raw material was purchased, but rises with the price of wheat at the time, but maintains its price when wheat is cheap.

An associated press report expresses surprise that Lord Sholto Douglas is working with a C.P.R. construction crew. And why, pray? Peter the Great, of Russia, worked in a shipyard; General Grant drew cord-wood into St. Louis, Mo.; and any number of European counts and other personages can be found in the big city restaurants acting as waiters and bawling "Ham-and-I!"

Estray Animal Act

The Estray Animals Act of Alberta was amended or practically re-drafted at the last session of the legislature and makes ample provision for the protection of owners of estray animals. The onus of locating the owner of an animal is placed on the man to whose premises the animal strays. He is compelled to advertise and the newspaper is allowed $1.50 for the three insertions. By the terms of the Act this advertisement should be arranged for by the nearest brand inspector, but it is a common custom for the farmer, or otherwise, to arrange it himself. If these means fail to identify the owner, the nearest brand inspector must be notified and he will make arrangements to have the animal sold by public auction.

From the proceeds of the sale all costs will be paid, and the balance, if any, must be sent to the Department of Agriculture, where it is held in trust for one year. If by the expiration of that time the owner doesn't turn up the money goes to the general revenues of the province. Those to whose places animals stray should not forget that while they are obliged to find the owner the ordinance provides for payment of all expenses. The owner must pay them before the animal can be removed. The estrayed animal must be cared for as if it were the finder's own. The act is drastic as to the fulfilling of conditions, and a fine of $100 may be imposed for negligence. In the event of a sale the finder is prohibited from buying or having anyone to do so for him. He must be absolutely disinterested. The ordinance fixes a schedule of charges, mileage, etc.

Dry Farm Pointers

In a recent bulletin on dry farm crops issued by the Experiment Station of Montana Agricultural College, the following pointers for the dry farmer are given:

1. Science and diligence will quadruple the harvest.
2. Water is of first importance. Use all possible means to prevent its waste.
3. From seven to ten inches of water can be saved for the crop by timely cultivation.
4. Disc after the harvesters, as early in spring as possible, and immediately after plowing.
5. Harrow after every rain and as soon as a crust begins to form.
6. Do not let weeds grow on summer-tilled land—they use up the water.
7. Harrow the grain in the spring until it is six inches high.
8. Pack the sub-surface before seeding.
9. Use drills that pack the earth about the seed.
10. Use only the best seed, select varieties and well cleaned.
11. Two or three pecks to an acre is enough.
12. Early ripening crops and early seeding are best for the dry farm. Late crops must be inter-tilled.
13. More can be produced in one crop after summer tillage than in two or three consecutive crops.
14. Market concentrated products—meat and butter pay better than forage.
15. Garden crops and shrubbery, as well as grain, may be made to thrive through tillage.

Rain Not Necessary to Grow Crops

Mr. Bowman, who lives about four miles south-west of Cayley, brought in a splendid sample of spring wheat the other day. By exact measurement it was 3 feet 6 inches long. When you consider the drought we are having, the statement that it does not require rain in Southern Alberta to grow crops is in a sense true. One man who had just come from the Southern States the other day said, Well I have more faith in Alberta than I ever had, for although in the States they have had lots of rain this last spring, they are just as dry as we are now, and their crops are not so good. Cheer up, Alberta is alright.

Homestead entries in the West in the first five months of the calendar year totalled 23,354, as compared with 13,111 for the same period of 1909, an increase of 78 per cent. In May alone there were 6,374 entries, representing 15,840 souls. By provinces the entries were: Manitoba, 1,120; Saskatchewan, 12,718; Alberta, 9,414, and British Columbia, 102. Of the entries for May, 2,143 were made by Canadians; 2,091 by Americans; 681 by English; 190 Scotch; 71 Irish; 259 Scandinavians; 309 Hungarians, and 47 French.

The Foot Path to Peace

To be glad of life because it gives you the chance to love and to work and to play, and to look up at the stars, to be satisfied with your possessions, but not contented with yourself until you have made the best of them, to despise nothing in the world except falsehood and meanness, and to fear nothing except cowardice; to be governed by your admirations rather than by your diagns; to covet nothing that is your neighbor's except his kindness of heart and gentleness of manners; to think seldom of your enemies, often of your friends, and every day of Christ; and to spend as much time as you can, with body and with spirit, in God's out-of-doors. These are little guide-posts on the foot-path to peace.—Henry van Dyke.

It Costs $40.00 For Doctor's Visit

On Alberta's Prairies—DR. CHASE'S Medicine and Receipt Book are Very Popular Out There.

The luxuries of city life are little known in the prairie homes of Western Canada. When sickness comes people find it necessary to depend on their own resources to a great extent on account of the difficulty and expense of a doctor's visit.

By reading the letter quoted here you will form some idea of how Dr. Chase's Medicine and Receipt Book are appreciated in Alberta. This is not only due to the convenience of having these medicines on hand when occasion requires but is also owing to their wonderful reliability.

Where will you find such a restorative tonic as Dr. Chase's Nerve Food? It cures the blood, strengthens the nerves and builds up the run down system.

Mr. Geo. Clay, Cayley, Alberta, writes: "I have always been a great admirer of Dr. Chase's Medicine and have had his large Receipt Book ever on my table. I have found it very handy for having saved many doctor bills and have proven wonderfully effective in getting sick. I have used Dr. Chase's Nerve Food for my wife. He studied the symptoms in Dr. Chase's Medicine and found it needed Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to restore her nervous system. I have now some of this medicine until he could get to town when he got two boxes more and these cured her entirely.

For myself, I used Dr. Chase's Catarrh Powder with splendid results. For some time I was with catarrh and could not breathe through my nose. Now I go to bed and never wake all night and breathe all the time through my nose.

Dr. Chase's Medicine are for sale by all dealers or Edmanham, Bates & Co., Toronto.

How About It?

"Something is wrong with our modern country life."

"Think so?"

"Sure. Up to date farmers take more interest in a quality article than they do in a big barn."

A Boon for the Bilius.—The liver is a very sensitive organ and easily deranged. In this country the undue secretion of bile and the acid liquid flow into the blood and cause it. It is a most distressing ailment in Europe and America. In this condition a man finds the best remedy in Minard's Lintment, which is warranted to cure. It has no other medicine in the entire list of pill prescriptions.

Idle men often get up a row simply to have something to do.

Attacks of cholera and dysentery come quickly, there seldom being any warning of the visit. Remedial action must be taken just as quickly if the patient is to be spared untold suffering and permanent injury to the lining membrane of the bowels. The leading preparation for the purpose is Dr. J. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial. It can be got at small cost at any drug store or general dealer, and it will afford relief before a doctor can be called.

Teacher—"What is the total population of the globe?"

Small boy (promptly)—"One and one-half billions."

Little girl (raising her hand)—"Yes, ma'am, we had a new baby brother in our house yesterday."

THE MODERN ULYSSES.

British Sea Captain who Loped Globe 41 Times.

If Ulysses could come to life again he would probably have a very short time of existence, for the record on learning how his globe-trotting record has been broken by a Canadian, would almost certainly prove fatal.

In these days of rapid and restless locomotion, to give glory to a dozen a dozen times, or to make ten times the crossing of the Atlantic by the Channel is a feat which scarcely deserves the name of a feat. It is one which Captain Alexander Simpson, the Aberdeen Line, could afford to smile.

When, a short time ago, the fine Aberdeen liner Pericles was unfortunately lost off Cape Lewis, West Australia, and all her mails and cargo, Captain Simpson, her gallant commander, was actually making his eighty-first voyage round the world, a record which he believed, to have never been rivaled. When this undesired disaster gave a pause to the captain's record-breaking he had covered on the sea the enormous distance of 2,070,000 miles.

And it is said that this record, amazing as it is, has been eclipsed by the sailing master of the Pericles, who is not a sailor. The actual holder of the world's marine record is Mr. H. Stevens, chief clerk of the shipping board of the Cunard Line, Locomotion. Mr. Stevens has been a helper in the service of the Cunard Line. Mr. Stevens spent forty years in connection with the shipping board of the Atlantic until, at the time of his retirement, he had covered the equivalent of more than 120 circuits of the earth at the equator.

Mr. Stevens, who is having crossed from Dover to Calais or from Calais to Dover a score of times, more times will think less of his record when he hears that the Pericles has made the Channel-crossing no more than 30,000 times, and did not think much of his record.

Modern traveler was Captain Bennett, who crossed the Atlantic by the South-Eastern and Chatham waterways. Captain Bennett, a fifty-three year old man, has made the Channel-crossing no more than 30,000 times, and did not think much of his record.

There are many captains in the Australian line, who have crossed the world between thirty and forty times, and have made the Channel-crossing no more than 30,000 times.

Mr. Stevens, who is having crossed from Dover to Calais or from Calais to Dover a score of times, more times will think less of his record when he hears that the Pericles has made the Channel-crossing no more than 30,000 times.

WHITSUNDAY CUSTOMS.

Remarkable Observances Are Found in Rural England.

It would be idle to inquire the origin of some of the extraordinary customs which still obtain at Whitsunday, for the beginning of many of them is lost in obscurity.

All the history that can be gathered of them is that they have been observed from time immemorial, and that local sentiment will not permit them to die out.

The most remarkable of these is that is dear to the hearts of the good people of Hertford, a usually quiet village in the Chesham district. Down a hill which the neighborhood boasts a substantial round cheese is set rolling, with the younger and more active of the population in hot pursuit.

Before it can be captured many of the pursuers are rolling, too, but none so fast as the cheese, which generally falls to one of the crowd who is able to keep his feet. It would be interesting to know the why and wherefore of this cheese-rolling, but there is nothing to show this.

The County of Northampton has a Whitsunday observance which is only known in the twenty century, the next year for it being 1923. It dates from the reign of "Good Queen Anne," and the story of it is the village of Corby.

It is object is to commemorate a charter granted to the inhabitants by King Henry II., which freed them from the duties of the shire from certain military duties, and other folk from service in the shire.

In the small hours of Whitsunday morning the bells of the parish are rung, and the people are gathered to the church. The service is a religious one, and the church is filled with people.

After the service the people are gathered to the church. The service is a religious one, and the church is filled with people.

CRIPPLED BY RHEUMATISM

Suffered Tortures Until "Fruit-tives" Took Away The Pain.

"Fruit-tives," the famous fruit medicine, is a great and powerful remedy, ready ever discovered for the cure of Rheumatism.

"Fruit-tives," by its marvelous action on the bowels, restores the blood, and thereby keeps the blood pure and healthy.

Mrs. Walter Mosher, of Hillview, Ont., says: "I suffered from severe Rheumatism, just the use of my right arm and could not do my work. Nothing helped me until I took 'Fruit-tives' and this medicine cured me."

If you are subject to Rheumatism, don't wait until a severe attack comes on, but get 'Fruit-tives' at once. Take them fruit tablets now and thus prevent the return of the attack.

"Fruit-tives" is sold by all dealers in medicine, or for $2.00, or trial box, 25c, or may be obtained from Fruit-tives, Limited, Ottawa.

The homesteaders living east of Carmangay in the Iron Springs and Sundial districts have presented a largely signed petition to the Hon. Frank Oliver asking him to have the time of proving up and the paying of fees on pre-emptions extended.

J. H. Garbutt informs the Nanton News that he has found a few specimens of the Colorado potato bug in his potato patch, and suggests that everybody should be on the watch, and exterminate these pests before they get established in the country.

The Methodist Ladies' Aid held an informal "get acquainted" gathering last Thursday afternoon in the church. The idea of it was to help the ladies who are new comers in our midst to feel at home, and that all should get acquainted. They all agreed that they had "just a lovely time."

It is rumored in political circles that Charles Stuart, at present judge of the Supreme Court, is likely to succeed Duncan Marshall as minister of agriculture for the local house. A session of the legislature will shortly be announced for the beginning of September; after which a general election will take place.

The logs cut last winter on Sheep Creek by the Lineham Lumber Co. cannot be floated down stream this year unless heavy rains occur in the interval. The cut was large and the logs were ready on the banks, but there was not sufficient water in the river to float the logs, so the drive did not take place, and as a result the Okotoks mill will be idle this year.

A quiet but pretty wedding took place on Monday afternoon of last week at the home of Mr. Samuel Hammill, east of Parkland, when his daughter, Maud, was united in marriage to Mr. W. Henry West of Winnipeg. After the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. E. S. Bishop of Nanton, a sumptuous wedding breakfast was served, after which the happy couple left to take up their new home in Winnipeg.

The engineers are now at work laying out the new C.P.R. bridge at Carmangay. This will be one of the largest bridges in Alberta, second only to the Lethbridge bridge. The bridge will be 1300 feet long and 140 feet at the highest point. There will be wooden trestle work at each end and a steel span in the centre 100 feet in length. It is expected the actual work will start at once and the bridge will be completed by October 1st. Trains will be running into Champion by November 15th.

Macloed was visited by the fire fiend on Saturday, when T. Wilton's newly opened bowling alley was destroyed. The fire was noticed and alarm given about one o'clock noon, and had gained considerable headway. The firemen were soon on the scene and managed to get the fire under control in a short time, and prevented the fire from spreading. The cause of the fire is supposed to have been through a cigarette stub being dropped in a spittoon filled with sawdust, and this to have smouldered all night, breaking into a blaze next morning.

Prospects are Bright, Alright

A party of Buffalo capitalists have written to the board of trade asking how chances are in Calgary for starting a soap factory. They state they have a large sum of money to invest in an extensive plant if the prospects are bright.

Calgary Herald.
No doubt the Buffalo capitalists have heard of the growth of Calgary, particularly about their dust storms during the past few months. Yes, there is plenty of room for a soap factory there—prospects are bright.

Music has been put to a practical use on the dairy farm of J. M. Longear, at Ives Lako, Mich. The cows are relieved of the irksome monotony of cud chewing and milk producing by selections played on a phonograph. The soothing effects of music, especially during milking time, have been found, it is said, especially successful with cows under official test. Several butter records of the farm are credited to the music.
